

Cazayoux Urges Insurance Companies to Quickly and Fairly Honor Claims

WASHINGTON, DC- Congressman Don Cazayoux sent a letter to insurance companies with policy holders in Louisiana today urging them to quickly and fairly honor insurance claims from Hurricane Gustav. In the letter, he urges the companies to act swiftly so that communities and families can return to a sense of normalcy as soon as possible.

Sends letter to insurance companies with policy holders in Louisiana

WASHINGTON, DC-
Congressman Don Cazayoux sent a letter to insurance companies with policy holders in Louisiana today urging them to quickly and fairly honor insurance claims from Hurricane Gustav. In the letter, he urges the companies to act swiftly so that communities and families can return to a sense of normalcy as soon as possible.

"In the aftermath of Hurricane Gustav, it is important that all involved parties work together in a quick and efficient manner to ensure a speedy recovery," Cazayoux said. "Insurance companies must act as quickly and fairly as possible in honoring claims from the storm. I hope my letter will help expedite the claims process."

A generic copy of the letter is attached to this e-mail.

-###-